2.3 Franchise Corporate Officers. REALTOR® members may be franchise corporate officers as follows: Notwithstanding any other provision herein, franchise corporate officers of real estate brokerage franchise organizations with at least one hundred fifty (150) franchisees located within the United States, its insular possessions and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, may be elected to membership pursuant to the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. (hereinafter "Franchise Corporate Officers"). Franchise Corporate Officers may or may not be licensed for California real estate broker or salesman or appraisal activities. 2.4 Designated REALTOR®. Each firm shall designate in writing one REALTOR® member as the "Designated REALTOR®" member, or may designate multiple Designated REALTORS®, each of whom shall be responsible for the conduct of individuals affiliated with the firm and accountable to the Association for all duties and obligations of Association membership, including but not limited to, certification as set forth in Article VI, Section 10. action is filed naming one Designated REALTOR® as the respondent, that Designated REALTOR® may not substitute another Designated REALTOR® in the office or firm in their place. Additionally, if multiple Designated REALTORS® are named as respondents in an arbitration or disciplinary filing, all Designated REALTORS® so named shall be respondents.

2.5 Association of Choice.

2.5.1 Primary Membership. Licensees affiliated with a REALTOR® firm may choose as their "primary" Board any Board within California where the firm maintains a "Designated REALTOR®." If a REALTOR® is a primary member of the Association, the Association pays C.A.R. and N.A.R. dues for that individual.

2.5.2 Secondary Membership. A REALTOR® who has joined another Board as a primary member may join this Association as a secondary member. There need not be a Designated REALTOR® member of this Association for licensees to select this Association as their secondary Board. The conditions for secondary membership shall be no more stringent than for primary membership, and the privileges of membership shall be the same including the right to vote and hold office.

2.6 Required REALTOR® Membership of Officers and Partners. All persons who are partners in a partnership or officers in a corporation, and actively engaged in the real estate profession within the state of California or a state contiguous thereto or are Franchise Corporate Officers as described above shall be ineligible for any class of membership other than REALTOR® membership. Each is required to hold REALTOR® membership individually in a local Board in California (except as provided in Section 2.7) or in a state contiguous thereto, if they meet all the other qualifications set forth in Article V, Sections 2.1, 2.2, or 2.3 of the Bylaws, unless they otherwise qualify for Institute Affiliate membership as described in Article V, Section 3. The provisions of this Section 2.6 do not apply to Affiliate Members.

2.7 Commercial Real Estate Businesses. In the case of a real estate firm, partnership or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, only those principals actively engaged in the real estate business in connection with the same office, or any other offices within the jurisdiction of the Association in which one of the firm's principals holds REALTOR® membership, shall be required to hold REALTOR® membership unless otherwise qualified for Institute Affiliate Membership as described in Article V, Section 3.

Section 3. Qualifications of Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate Members shall be individuals who hold a professional designation awarded by an Institute, Society or Council affiliated with the N.A.R. that addresses a specialty area other than residential brokerage or individuals who otherwise hold a class of membership in such Institute, Society or Council that confers the right to hold office. Any such individual, if otherwise eligible, may elect to hold REALTOR® membership, subject to payment of applicable dues for such membership.

Section 4. Qualifications of Affiliate Members. Affiliate Members must be real estate owners or other individuals or firms engaged in activities related to the real estate profession who do not qualify for REALTOR® membership. Affiliate members have interests requiring information concerning real estate and are in sympathy with the objectives of this Association.

An individual who holds a current, valid California real estate broker or salesperson license or a California real estate appraisal certification or license and is engaged in the real estate business, may elect to hold REALTOR® and Affiliate membership.

Section 5. Qualifications of Honorary Life Members. The Board of Directors may confer Honorary Life Membership to those REALTOR® members of the Association recognized as individuals who have (1) faithfully served the Association, and maintained active REALTOR® membership in the Association for a minimum of fifteen (15) continuous years, or (2) served at least one full term as President of the Association. The Board of Directors shall confer no more than two Honorary Life Memberships in any year.

Section 6. Membership Application.

6.1 Each applicant for membership shall submit an application in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the Association Board of Directors (hereinafter "Board of Directors"). The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, prescribe a specific application for Affiliate Members. Applicants shall give their consent that the Board of Directors, through the Association's staff (hereinafter "staff") or otherwise, may obtain information about the applicant from any member, other persons or Boards and that any information furnished to the Board of Directors by any member, person, or Board shall not form the basis of any action for slander, libel or defamation of character. The Board of Directors, through its staff or otherwise, may consider the following in determining an applicant's qualifications for membership: (1) all final findings of N.A.R. Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in any other Board within the past three (3) years; (2) pending ethics complaints or hearings; (3) unsatisfied discipline pending; (4) pending arbitration requests or hearings; (5) unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to any other Board or Multiple Listing Service ("MLS").

6.2 Applicants for membership shall be familiar with and agree to abide by the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Bylaws of C.A.R. and the N.A.R. Constitution, Bylaws and Code of Ethics, to the extent they are applicable, and pass such reasonable and nondiscriminatory written examination thereon as may be required by the Board of Directors. Applicants must also attend an orientation program as may be required by the Board of Directors, its staff, or otherwise.

6.3 Applicants for REALTOR® membership shall certify that they have no record of official sanctions rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities for (i) violations of civil rights laws or real estate license laws within the past three years or (ii) criminal convictions if (1) the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year under the law under which the applicant was convicted, and (2) no more than ten years have elapsed since the date of the conviction or the release of the applicant from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, and (3) that they have not been suspended or expelled from an Association the past three years for violations of the N.A.R. Code of Ethics.

6.4 Applicants who are sole proprietors, general partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers (Article V, Section 2) of a real estate firm must disclose: (1) whether they or their firms are subject to any pending bankruptcy proceedings; and (2) whether they or their firms have been adjudged bankrupt within the past three (3) years. If the applicant is party to pending bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings or has been adjudged bankrupt within the past three (3) years, the applicant may be required to pay cash in advance for Association and MLS fees for up to one (1) year from the date that membership is approved or from the date that the applicant is discharged from bankruptcy, whichever is later. If the Board of Directors determines that such prepayments will not protect the interests of the Association or its members, such applications may be rejected.

Section 7. Prior Membership Records. The Association may consider information received from other Boards in determining whether an applicant satisfies the Association's membership requirements. The Association may request from any Board where the applicant held prior membership, minimum "core" information including:

7.1 All final findings of Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in this or any other REALTOR® association or MLS within the past three (3) years;

7.2 Pending complaints (or hearings) alleging violations of the Code of Ethics or alleging violations of other membership duties;

7.3 Incomplete (or pending) disciplinary measures;

7.4 Pending arbitration requests (or hearings); and

7.5 Unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to the Association or its MLS; and

7.6 Any misuse of the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® in the name of the applicant's firm.

NOTE: Article IV, Section 2, of the N.A.R. Bylaws prohibits a member Board from knowingly granting REALTOR® or REALTOR®-ASSOCIATE membership to any applicant who has an unfulfilled sanction pending which was imposed by another Board for violation of the Code of Ethics.

Section 8. Application Review and Acceptance. The staff shall determine whether the applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership. It shall then give notice to the Board of Directors of such application and invite written comment. The procedure for contested and uncontested applications shall be as follows:

8.1 Contested Application.

8.1.1 If one or more of the Directors or if staff object to the approval of the application, basing such objection on lack of qualification as set forth in these Bylaws, the staff shall invite any objecting member to appear and substantiate his or her objections. Objections which are not substantiated shall be totally disregarded. The staff must: (a) inform the applicant in advance, in writing, of any objections and identify the objecting member; and

TRI-COUNTIES ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® BYLAWS

Effective: March 10, 2014

(b)give the applicant an opportunity to appear before the Board of Directors to establish his or her qualifications. The Board of Directors or staff may also request “core” information as defined in Article V, Section 7, from any Board of which the applicant was previously a member. The staff shall thereafter make a written report of its findings. The staff shall conduct all proceedings with strict attention to the principles of due process and compliance with these Bylaws.

8.1.2 Within twenty (20) days, the staff shall report its recommendation to the applicant and Board of Directors in writing. If the recommendation is to reject the application, the reasons shall be specifically stated.

8.1.3 The Board of Directors shall review the qualifications of the applicant and the recommendations of the staff and then vote on the applicant's eligibility for membership. If the applicant appears he or she may be represented by counsel, call witnesses on his or her behalf and make such statements as he or she deems relevant. Whether or not the applicant is represented by counsel, the Board of Directors may have counsel present. If the applicant receives a majority vote of the Board of Directors, he or she shall be declared accepted as a member and shall be advised by written notice. An application for Institute Affiliate Membership shall be acted upon by the Board of Directors within forty-five (45) days from the date of application for membership.

8.1.4 If the Board of Directors determines that the application should be rejected, it shall record its reasons. If the Board of Directors believes that denial of membership to the applicant may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by the applicant, it may specify that denial shall become effective upon entry in a suit by the Association for a declaratory judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgment declaring that the rejection violates no rights of the applicant.

8.1.5 The Board of Directors, through its staff or otherwise, may grant “provisional” membership to an applicant in instances where ethics complaints or arbitration requests or hearings are pending in other Boards or where the applicant for membership has unsatisfied discipline pending in another Board, provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of REALTOR® membership. The Board of Directors may reconsider the membership status of provisional members when all pending ethics and arbitration matters and related discipline have been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six (6) months from the date that provisional membership is approved. At the time of reconsideration, if the Board of Directors determines that the individual has not satisfactorily resolved the pending ethics or arbitration matter, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, membership may be terminated. Any dues paid by the provisional member shall be prorated from the date of application to the date of termination, and the remaining dues shall be returned to the terminated provisional member.

8.1.6 If a member resigns from another Board with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending the Board of Directors may condition membership on the applicant's certification that he or she will submit to the pending ethics or arbitration proceeding, in accordance with the procedures of the Association, and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel.

8.2 Uncontested Applications. If the Board receives no objections to an application for membership, and upon completion of the membership requirements set forth in these Bylaws and/or Board policies, the applicant shall automatically be deemed accepted into membership.

Section 9. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation. Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members (where applicable) shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics, meeting the minimum criteria established by N.A.R. for new member ethics training. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another Board, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one (1) year or less. Failure to satisfy this requirement within sixty (60) days of the date of application (or, alternatively, the date that provisional membership was granted,) will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may require applicants for Affiliate Membership to complete an orientation program applicable to Affiliate Membership.

Section 10. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training. Every four (4) year period, each REALTOR® member of the Association shall be required to complete a course on the Code of Ethics, meeting the minimum criteria established by N.A.R. for quadrennial ethics training. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed such course of instruction conducted by this or another Board, C.A.R., N.A.R., or any other recognized educational institution. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another Board and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any four (4) year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new four (4) year period commences. Failure to satisfy this requirement shall be considered a violation of a membership duty for which REALTOR® membership shall be suspended until such time as the training is completed.

REALTOR® Members suspended for failing to meet the requirements for the first four (4) year cycle (2001-2004) will have until December 31, 2005 to meet the requirement. Failure to meet the requirement by that time will result in automatic termination of membership.

Failure to meet the requirement for the second (2005-2008) cycle and subsequent four (4) year cycles will result in suspension of membership for the first two (2) months (January and February) of the year following the end of any four (4) year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated. (Adopted 1/01, revised 6/05).

Section 11. Status Changes.

11.1 A REALTOR® member who changes the conditions under which he or she holds-membership shall be required to provide written notification to the Association within thirty (30) days. A non-principal REALTOR® who becomes a principal in the firm with which he or she has been licensed, or becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals, may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to principal REALTOR® members. During the period of transition from one status of membership to another, such member shall be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a principal REALTOR® member. The Board of Directors, at its discretion, may waive any qualification which the member has already fulfilled in accordance with these Bylaws. If the REALTOR® does not satisfy the requirements established in the Bylaws for the category of membership to which he has transferred within thirty (30) days of the date he advised the Association of the change in his or her status, the application for change of status will terminate automatically unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors.

11.2 If the licensed status of a member is terminated, his or her membership in the Association shall terminate automatically. If member ceases to meet any other ongoing qualification of membership, his or her membership may be terminated by the Board of Directors. Each member shall have the affirmative duty to notify the Association of any changes in his or her license status.

11.3 Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant. Dues shall be prorated from the first day of the month in which the member is notified of acceptance by the Board of Directors of the change in status and shall be based upon the new membership status for the remainder of the year.

Section 12. Resignation. Resignation of a member shall become effective when received in writing by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that if member submitting the resignation is indebted to the Association for dues, fees, fines or other assessments of the Association or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries, the Association may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

Section 13. Member in Good Standing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, a person shall not be eligible for membership nor considered to be in good standing or eligible for continued membership if said person, or a firm for which he is a designated broker, owner, or majority shareholder, is delinquent or in default as to any obligation to the Association, including but not limited to, rental or additional payments, performance of any contractual obligation, travel expenses, or satisfaction of any judgment entered by a court of law.

Section 14. Inactivation and Reactivation of Membership. REALTOR® members, Institute Affiliate Members, and Affiliate Members may become inactive or reactivate their membership or take a leave of absence as follows:

14.1 Inactivation. Upon written notification to the Association, a member in good standing may inactivate their membership for a period of up to one (1) year. If the member is not in good standing at the time of inactivation, there shall be no grace period for reactivation. The inactive member shall have no rights or privileges as a member during the period of inactivation.

14.2 Reactivation. A member who was in good standing at the time of inactivation may reactivate their membership by paying the required dues and fees. If the member's period of inactivation exceeds one (1) year, or the member was not in good standing at the time of inactivation, they may reapply for membership in the manner prescribed for new applicants, in addition to paying any balance which was outstanding at the time of inactivation.

Section 15. Leave of Absence. Upon written notification to the Association a member in good standing may take a leave of absence from membership for a period of up to six (6) months. During the leave, the member shall have no rights or privileges as a member. However, a member may continue to have his or her real estate license held by the same real estate broker with whom the member was affiliated at the time the leave began. A member shall not be actively engaged in the real estate business with any firm during the period of leave. Upon reinstatement, the member shall pay appropriate dues and fees.

ARTICLE VI. PRIVILEGES AND DUTIES OF MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Member Compliance with Bylaws, Policies, Rules, and Regulations.

1.1 It shall be the duty of every member of the Association to abide by the Bylaws, Policies and Rules and Regulations of the Association. Any member of the Association may be reprimanded, fined, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled by the Board of Directors for a violation of these Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations of the Association. If a hearing is required it shall be held in accordance with the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. Non-REALTOR® members and Affiliate members are not subject to the Code of Ethics; however they are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the Code of Ethics and to conduct their business and professional practices accordingly.

1.2 Although only REALTOR® members are subject to the Code of Ethics and its enforcement by the Association, all members are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the N.A.R. Code of Ethics and to conduct their business and professional practices accordingly. Further, any non-REALTOR® member may, upon recommendation of a hearing panel of the Professional Standards Committee, be subject to discipline as described above for any conduct which in the opinion of the Board of Directors reflects adversely on the real estate industry or the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, and for conduct that is inconsistent with or adverse to the objectives and purposes of this Association, C.A.R. or N.A.R.

Section 2. Member Discipline.

2.1 ANY MEMBER OF THE A.O.R. MAY BE REPRIMANDED, PLACED ON PROBATION, SUSPENDED OR EXPELLED FOR HARASSMENT OF AN ASSOCIATION OR MLS EMPLOYEE OR ASSOCIATION OFFICER OR DIRECTOR AFTER AN INVESTIGATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROCEDURES OF THE ASSOCIATION. AS USED IN THIS SECTION, HARASSMENT MEANS ANY VERBAL OR PHYSICAL CONDUCT INCLUDING THREATENING OR OBSCENE LANGUAGE, UNWELCOME SEXUAL ADVANCES, STALKING, ACTIONS INCLUDING STRIKES, SHOVES, KICKS, OR OTHER SIMILAR

TRI-COUNTIES ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® BYLAWS

PHYSICAL CONTACT, OR THREATS TO DO THE SAME, OR ANY OTHER CONDUCT WITH THE PURPOSE OR EFFECT OF UNREASONABLY INTERFERING WITH AN INDIVIDUAL'S WORK PERFORMANCE BY CREATING A HOSTILE, INTIMIDATING OR OFFENSIVE WORK ENVIRONMENT. THE DECISION OF THE APPROPRIATE DISCIPLINARY ACTION TO BE TAKEN SHALL BE MADE BY THE INVESTIGATORY TEAM COMPRISED OF THE PRESIDENT, PRESIDENT-ELECT AND ONE MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS SELECTED BY THE HIGHEST RANKING OFFICER NOT NAMED IN THE COMPLAINT, UPON CONSULTATION WITH COUNSEL FOR THE ASSOCIATION. DISCIPLINARY ACTION MAY INCLUDE ANY SANCTION AUTHORIZED IN THE ASSOCIATION'S CODE OF ETHICS AND ARBITRATION MANUAL. IF THE COMPLAINT NAMES THE PRESIDENT OR PRESIDENT-ELECT, THEY MAY NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE PROCEEDINGS AND SHALL BE REPLACED BY THE IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT OR, ALTERNATIVELY, BY ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS SELECTED BY THE HIGHEST RANKING OFFICER NOT NAMED IN THE COMPLAINT.

NOTE: Suggested procedures for processing complaints of harassment are available on line at <http://www.REALTOR.org>, or from the Member Policy Department.

2.2 Other Violations. Any REALTOR® member of the Association may be disciplined by the Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership after a hearing as described in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with N.A.R. policy as set forth in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 3. BRE Discipline/Power to Take Disciplinary Action. Upon the effective date of a suspension or revocation of a member's license by the Department of Real Estate ("BRE"), said member's membership in the Association shall automatically terminate. Any member issued a restricted real estate license shall notify the Association within one (1) business day of receiving notification, whether oral or written, of the restricted license and said membership shall be placed in a probationary status and referred to the Board of Directors for review and possible referral to the Grievance Committee to determine whether there exists a possibility of a violation of the Code of Ethics. The Designated REALTOR® of the affected member shall be required to notify the Association within one (1) business day of any final action taken by the BRE against the Designated REALTOR® or any licensee who was affiliated with the Designated REALTOR® or firm at the time of the act giving rise to the action taken by the BRE. Affiliate members are exempted from the provisions of this section.

Section 4. Resignation with Pending Arbitration or Disciplinary Hearing. If a member resigns from the Association or otherwise causes membership to terminate with a disciplinary complaint pending, the Board of Directors may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon the applicant's certification that they will submit to the pending disciplinary hearing and comply with any sanction imposed. If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to arbitration continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a member.

Section 5. Voting Rights and Eligibility for Elective Office. Only REALTOR® members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing per Article V, Section 13, shall be entitled to vote and to hold elective office in the Association. Additionally, to hold elective office in the Association, REALTOR® members shall meet the eligibility requirements per Article X, Sections 5 and 8.

Section 6. Privileges and Duties of REALTOR® Members.

6.1 It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of the Association to abide by the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of C.A.R., the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R., and to abide by the Code of Ethics, as set forth in Article VI, Section 1 of these Bylaws.

6.2 REALTOR® Members have the primary responsibility to safeguard and promote the standards, interests and welfare of the Association and the real estate profession.

6.3 REALTOR® members may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® subject to the provisions of Article VIII.

6.4 If a REALTOR® member who is a sole proprietor, principal in a firm, partner in a partnership, officer of a corporation, or office manager is suspended or expelled, his or her firm, partnership or corporation shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or expulsion and the membership of all other principals, partners or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension or expulsion, unless: (a) the disciplined member severs his or her connection with the firm, partnership or corporation; or (b) the disciplined member relinquishes management control of the firm.

6.5 The membership of REALTORS® who are employed or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension or expulsion unless: (a) the disciplined member severs his or her connection with the firm, partnership or corporation; (b) the disciplined member relinquishes management control of the firm; or (c) the non-principal REALTOR® member elects to sever his or her connection with the disciplined member and affiliates with another REALTOR® member in good standing in the Association. If a REALTOR® member other than a sole proprietor in a firm, partner in a partnership, officer of a corporation or branch office manager is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership or corporation shall not be affected. Removal of an individual from any form or degree of management control must be certified to the Association by the disciplined member and by the individual who is assuming management control. The signatures on such certification must be notarized. The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, provided no management control is exercised.

6.6 In any action taken against a principal REALTOR® member for suspension or expulsion, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® member and they shall be advised that the provisions in this Article VI, Section 6 shall apply.

Section 7. Privileges and Duties of Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate members shall have the rights and privileges and be subject to the obligations prescribed by the Board of Directors consistent with the N.A.R. Constitution and Bylaws.

NOTE: Local associations establish the rights and privileges to be conferred on Institute Affiliate Members except that no Institute Affiliate Member may be granted the right to use the term REALTOR®, REALTOR-ASSOCIATE®, or the REALTOR® logo; to serve as President of the local association; or to be a Participant in the local association's MLS. (Amended 1/02)

Section 8. Privileges and Duties of Affiliate Members. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every Affiliate member of the Association to abide by applicable Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of C.A.R., and the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. Affiliate members shall have the rights and privileges and be subject to the obligations prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Privileges and Duties of Honorary Life Members. An Honorary Life Member shall have the right to vote, hold elective office, and serve on committees and task forces, as long as said member maintains active REALTOR® membership in good standing in the Association. Said member shall have all of the obligations, privileges, and duties as are required of members in the REALTOR® classification of membership. The local allocation of Association dues of said member shall be waived for as long as said member remains a member in good standing. If said member ceases to remain a member in good standing, the dues waiver shall be revoked and said member shall be assessed the prorated portion of the current year's allocation of Association dues. Said member may apply for reinstatement of waiver after one (1) year.

Section 10. Certification by Designated REALTOR®. Designated REALTORS® shall certify to the Association upon request, on a form provided by the Association, a complete listing of all individuals licensed or certified under California law with the REALTOR® firm(s) and shall designate the primary Board, if any, for each individual. These declarations shall be used for purposes of calculating dues under Article IX, Section 2 of the Bylaws. Designated REALTOR® members shall also notify the Association of any additional individual(s) licensed or certified with the firm(s) and of any individual whose affiliation with the firm was severed within five (5) days of the date of affiliation or severance of the individual(s).

ARTICLE VII. PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS AND ARBITRATION

Section 1. Professional Standards and Arbitration. The responsibility of the Association and its members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, as published and from time to time amended by C.A.R., which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Section 2. Member Compliance with N.A.R. and C.A.R. Constitution, Bylaws, Policies, Rules, Regulations, and Code of Ethics. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this Association to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations of this Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of C.A.R., the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R., and the Code of Ethics, including the duty to arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the N.A.R. Code of Ethics, and as further defined and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual as from time to time amended by C.A.R., which by this reference is incorporated as a part of these Bylaws. By becoming and remaining a member, every REALTOR® member agrees that he or she and the corporation or firm for which he or she acts as a partner, officer, principal, or branch office manager will submit to arbitration through the Association all disputes with any other member or member of the public subject to the conditions set forth in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

ARTICLE VIII. USE OF THE TERMS REALTOR® AND REALTORS®

Section 1. Use and Control of REALTOR® Membership Marks. Use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® by members shall, at all times, be subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. and the Rules and Regulations prescribed by its Board of Directors. The Association shall have the authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with N.A.R., use of the terms within its jurisdiction. Any misuse of the terms by members is a violation of a membership duty and may subject members to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors after a hearing as provided for in the C.A.R. Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 2. Jurisdictional Limits on Use of REALTOR® Membership Marks. REALTOR® members of the Association shall have the privilege of using the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with their places of business within California, or a state contiguous thereto, so long as they remain REALTOR® members in good standing. No other class of members shall have this privilege.

Section 3. Use of REALTOR® Membership Marks Dependent on Status of Firm Principals.

3.1 A REALTOR® member who is a principal of a real estate firm, partnership, or corporation may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® only if all the principals of such firm, partnership, or corporation who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within California, or a state contiguous thereto, are REALTOR® members.

3.2 In the case of a REALTOR® member who is a principal of a real estate firm, partnership or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, the right to use the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® shall be limited to office locations in which a principal, partner, corporate officer or branch office manager of the firm, partnership or corporation holds REALTOR® membership. If a firm, partnership or corporation operates additional places of business in which no principal, partner, corporate officer or branch office manager holds REALTOR® membership, the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® may not be used in any reference to those additional places of business.

Section 4. Institute Affiliate Members Ineligible to Use REALTOR® Membership Marks. Institute Affiliate members shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, nor the imprint of the emblem seal of N.A.R.

ARTICLE IX. DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Application Fee. The Board of Directors may adopt a reasonable application fee for membership in the Association. The application fee for REALTOR® membership shall not exceed three (3) times the amount of the annual dues for REALTOR® membership. The application fee shall be required to accompany each application for membership in the Association and shall become the property of the Association upon final approval of the application.

Section 2. Dues. The Board of Directors shall determine annually the amount of annual dues to be paid by each class of membership as follows:

2.1 Designated REALTOR® Members.

2.1.1 The dues of each Designated REALTOR® member shall be a base amount plus an amount multiplied by the number of real estate licensees and licensed or certified appraisers under California law to which he certified under Article VI, Section, and who: (a) are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors, or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed or certified with such REALTOR® member; and (b) are not REALTOR® members of any Board within California or a state contiguous thereto or Institute Affiliate members of this Association.

2.1.2 In calculating the dues payable to the Association by a Designated REALTOR® member, non-member licensees as defined in (a) and (b) of sub-paragraph 2.1.1 shall not be included in the computation of dues if the Designated REALTOR® has paid dues based on non-member licensees to another Association within the state of California or a state contiguous thereto, provided the Designated REALTOR® notifies the Association in writing of the identity of the Association to which dues have been remitted.

2.1.3 A REALTOR® with a direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged exclusively in soliciting and/or referring clients and customers to the REALTOR® for consideration on a substantially exclusive basis shall annually file with the Association on a form approved by the Association a list of the licensees affiliated with that entity and shall certify that all of the licensees affiliated with the entity are solely engaged in referring clients and customers and are not engaged in listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, appraising or arranging financing for real property. The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this Article IX, Section 2.1.3 and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®.

TRI-COUNTIES ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® BYLAWS
Effective: March 10, 2014

2.1.4 A REALTOR® with a direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged in the real estate business which provides services for which a Mortgage Loan Originators license endorsement (MLO) is required may annually file with the Association, on a form approved by the Association, a list of the MLO licensees and certify that the listed licensees (1) have a MLO license or endorsement, (2) are not engaged in real estate licensed activities except those for which an MLO is required, and (3) are not participants or subscribers in any Multiple Listing Service. The individuals disclosed on such forms shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this Article IX, Section 2.1.4 and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®.

2.1.5 The exemption for any licensee included on the certification forms shall automatically be revoked upon the individual being engaged in real estate licensed activities (listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling or appraising) other than referrals, providing services for which a real estate license is required, other than those for which an MLO license is required, or being a participant or subscriber of any Multiple Listing Service, and dues for the current fiscal year shall be payable.

2.1.6 Membership dues shall be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the Association who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership in the Association. However, membership dues shall not be prorated if the licensee held REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership during the preceding calendar year.

2.1.7 In the case of a Designated REALTOR® member in a firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited to licensees affiliated with the Designated REALTOR® (as defined in sub-paragraph 2.1.1 of this Section) in the office where the Designated REALTOR® holds membership, and any other offices of the firm located within the jurisdiction of this Association.

2.2 REALTOR® Members. The annual dues of REALTOR® members shall be the same amount as those for designated REALTORS®. However, said dues shall not include any allocation for (a) C.A.R. if the member is a member of a board of C.A.R. and that board has paid C.A.R. dues for the member, or (b) N.A.R., if the member is a member of a board of N.A.R. and that board has paid N.A.R. dues for the member.

2.3 Institute Affiliate Members. The annual dues of each Institute Affiliate member shall be as established in Article II of the Bylaws of N.A.R.

NOTE: The Institutes, Societies and Councils of N.A.R. shall be responsible for collecting and remitting dues to N.A.R. for Institute Affiliate Members ($105.00). N.A.R. shall credit $35.00 to the account of a local association for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is within the assigned territorial jurisdiction of that association, provided, however, if the office location is also within the territorial jurisdiction of a Commercial Overlay Board (COB), the $35.00 amount will be credited to the COB, unless the Institute Affiliate Member directs that the dues be distributed to the other board. N.A.R. shall also credit $35.00 to the account of state associations for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is located within the territorial jurisdiction of the state association. Local and state associations may not establish any additional entrance, initiation fees or dues for Institute Affiliate Members, but may provide service packages to which Institute Affiliate Members may voluntarily subscribe. (Amended 1/02)

2.4 Affiliate Members. The annual dues of each Affiliate member shall be as established annually by the Board of Directors.

2.5 Honorary Life Members. The annual dues of Honorary Life members shall be in an amount applicable only to C.A.R. and N.A.R., subject to the provisions of Article VI, Section 9. Honorary Life members who are designated REALTORS® shall be subject to the dues formula as stated in Section 2.1 of this Article IX, less payment of the base amount of local Association dues allocated to said Designated REALTOR®.

2.6 NAR REALTOR® Emeriti. The dues of REALTOR® members who are REALTOR® Emeriti (as recognized by the N.A.R.), past presidents and past treasurers of N.A.R. or recipients of the Distinguished Service Award shall be as determined by the board of directors. (Amended 11/2013)

NOTE: A Member Board's dues obligation to N.A.R. is reduced by an amount equal to the amount which the association is assessed for a REALTOR® member, times the number of REALTOR® Emeriti (as recognized by N.A.R.), past presidents and past treasurers of the National Association, and recipients of the Distinguished Service Award of N.A.R. who are REALTOR® members of the Association. The dues obligation of such individuals to the local association should be reduced to reflect the reduction in the association's dues obligation to N.A.R. The Association may, at its option, choose to have no dues requirement for such individuals except as may be required to meet the Association's obligation to C.A.R. with respect to such individuals. Member Boards should determine whether the dues payable by the association to the State Association are reduced with respect to such individuals. It should be noted that this does not affect a "designated" REALTOR®'s dues obligation to the Association with respect to those licensees employed by or affiliated with the "designated" REALTOR® who are not members of the Association. (Amended 11/2013)

Section 3. Dues Payable. Dues for all members shall be payable annually in advance on the first day of January. Dues shall be computed from the first day of the month in which a new member is notified of acceptance and shall be prorated for the remainder of the year. Any member who initiates bankruptcy proceedings may be placed on a "cash basis" from the date the bankruptcy petition is filed until one (1) year from the date that the member has been discharged from bankruptcy. All dues or fees paid to the Association are nonrefundable, except for those dues returned to a terminated provisional member as provided in Article V, Section 8.

Section 4. Nonpayment of Financial Obligations.

4.1 Dues. Subject to the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of this Article IX, the membership and all rights of any member whose dues are not paid by February 15 shall be suspended and a late charge in an amount as determined by the Board of Directors shall be assessed. If said dues are not paid by February 25, the membership of the nonpaying member shall automatically terminate.

4.2 Other Financial Obligations. If fees, fines, assessments or other amounts owed to the Association or its MLS, are not paid within one (1) month after the due date or, in the case of MLS fees, by the last day of current billing cycle, the nonpaying member shall be suspended. Two (2) months after the due date, membership of the nonpaying member shall automatically terminate unless, within that time, all amounts due are paid.

4.3 Obligation of Designated REALTOR® for Non-Member Salesman.

4.3.1 If the membership of a licensee (or licensed or certified appraiser) who holds REALTOR® membership is terminated for nonpayment of Association dues, and the licensee remains affiliated with the designated REALTOR®, the dues obligation of the designated REALTOR® shall, as set forth in Section 2 of this Article IX, be increased to reflect the addition of a non-member licensee. Dues shall be calculated from the first day of current fiscal year and are payable within thirty (30) days notice of termination to the designated REALTOR®. Payment of said obligation shall not reinstate a terminated member's REALTOR® membership.

4.3.2 If the membership of a licensee (or licensed or certified appraiser) who holds membership is inactivated, whether in the current or preceding year(s), and the licensee remains affiliated with the designated REALTOR®, the dues obligation of the designated REALTOR® for the current year shall, as set forth in Section 2 of this Article IX, be increased to reflect the addition of a non-member licensee. Dues shall be calculated from the first day of the current fiscal year and are payable within thirty (30) days notice to the designated REALTOR® of the Association's knowledge of said salesman's affiliation with designated REALTOR®. Payment of said obligation shall not reinstate an inactive member's REALTOR® membership.

Section 5. Reinstatement After Termination for Nonpayment of Financial Obligations. A former member who has had his or her membership terminated for nonpayment of dues, fees, fines, assessments, or other amounts owed to the Association, duly levied in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of other Rules and Regulations of the Association or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries may apply for reinstatement in a manner prescribed for new applicants for membership, upon payment of the appropriate application fee, and only after making payment in full of all accounts due as of the date of termination.

Section 6. Deposit. All monies received by the Association for any purpose shall be deposited to the credit of the Association in a financial institution or institutions selected by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Notice of Delinquent Dues, Fees, Fines, Assessments and Other Financial Obligations of Members. All delinquent dues, fees, fines, assessments or other financial obligations to the Association or its MLS shall be noticed to the delinquent member in writing setting forth the amount owed and the due date.

ARTICLE X. OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. Officers. The Officers of the Association shall be Directors of the Association and shall be chosen and serve terms as follows: The Executive Vice President, who is the chief staff person of the Association, is not a Director.

1.1 Number of Officers. There shall be four (4) Officer/Directors, as follows: a President, a President-Elect, a Secretary/Treasurer, and an Immediate Past President.

1.2 Filled by Appointment at Organizational Meeting. Within forty-five (45) days of the annual election of Directors, the incoming Directors and Directors whose terms will not expire shall meet ("Organizational Meeting") and a majority shall elect the President-Elect and the Secretary/Treasurer from among the incoming Directors and the Directors whose terms will not expire.

1.3 Filled by Ascendancy. The President-Elect shall automatically ascend to the Presidency at the end of the term as President-Elect. The President shall automatically ascend to the position of Immediate Past President at the end of the term as President.

1.4 Terms.

(a) The President-Elect shall serve one year as President Elect and then serve one year as President
